After a demonstration and short briefing by the Battalion Commander, you will see your Soldier. He/she will be granted an on-post pass until 8:00 PM that day.

In case of rain, Family Day will be held indoors at the Solomon Center.

3. Enjoy time with your Soldier. Immediately following the Family Day brief, you are invited to tour the Post. Together, your family can visit the many facilities here on Fort Jackson. Please do not go out to any of the rifle ranges or training areas. You may eat at the NCO or Officers Club at a cost of $7.00 per adult and $3.75 per child (ages 4-11).

Need more info? A map is included on the back to assist you in your visit to Fort Jackson. Also included is a list of important phone numbers and a website address if you need additional information.

4. Attend Graduation. Your Soldier graduates on Thursday, 16 December 2010 @ 10:00 AM on Hilton Field. (SEE MAP). Follow the signs to Hilton Field. In case of severe weather, the graduation ceremony will be inside the Solomon Center.

5. After Graduation. Immediately following the ceremony, each Soldier is authorized an overnight off-post pass with their immediate family members, i.e. father, mother, husband or wife after physically signing out through their company. Due to the Christmas break all families are encouraged to sign their Soldier out after Graduation and take them home for Christmas. Soldiers will report to their Advanced Individual Training (AIT) location from their home of record or Christmas location (which must be within the continental United States). Transporting your Soldier is strictly your choice and an opportunity for you to spend more time with your loved one; however, you are not obligated to do so.

The Rules: While on pass, your Soldier must remain in uniform and is not allowed to drive vehicles, drink any form of alcohol or use any tobacco products. Soldiers must return to the barracks no later than 8:00 PM!

Enjoy Your Soldier's Graduation!
